

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Giuseppe Mazzitelli
Italy

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 1-6-2019 Deputy Director of the Fusion and Technology for Nuclear Safety and Security Department
- 2015 Head of ENEA Fusion Technology Division
- 1999-2014 Head of Frascati Tokamak Upgrade
- 1983 ENEA starting as Researcher and now Director of Research at the ENEA Fusion Department in Frascati.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- 1978 Degree in Physics cum Laude at University of Rome "La Sapienza" Rome
- 1979-1981 Comitato Nazionale Energia Nucleare: Fellowship on "Plasma Spectroscopy"
- 1982 EURATOM: EURATOM Fellowship on "Impurity dynamics in tokamak" at the Research Center of Fontenay-aux-Roses of the CEA

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- 2020 Member of the ad Hoc Group of EUROFUSION for the new Consortium Agreement
- April 2020 Chair of the ENEA-INFN committee for the regulation of the scientific relationship between ENEA and INFN and the execution of joint research activities
- July 2019 Responsible of the Agreement between ENEA and Regione Lazio for the realization of the DTT facility.
- 2013 Member of the Technical Scientific Committee of RFX Consortium
- 2016-2018 Member of the PEX ad Hoc Group of EUROfusion
- 2014-2017 Coordinator of liquid metal activity in the framework of Work Packages DTT1 of EUROfusion Consortium
- 2012-2013 Coordinator of European Research group on Liquid Metals
- 2002-2013 Member of the Executive Committee of Fusion for Energy
- 2007-2016 Professor at the University "Tor Vergata" in Rome - Course on Nuclear Energy Physics
- 2006 Member of IAEA-IFRC Subcommittee on atomic and molecular data for fusion
- 2002-2003 Professor at Catania University –Italy

Publications Author/co-author of more of 150 papers published in international Journals.